The Traveling Journal strengthens your partnership with families by offering an organized and easy method to maintain daily communication.

Daily routines
Record the essentials in this section, including meals, diapering, and naps.

Input from home
The first part of the journal is completed by the family, providing you with a fuller view of how the child is doing that day.

Connect & Communicate

PLAY & EXPLORE

Move & Grow

Collaboration
This space provides a channel of communication between you and the family. jot down ideas, questions, and suggestions, and encourage the family to do the same.

Supplies needed
- Diapers
- Wipes
- Formula/Milk
- Clothes
- Other

Sticker system
Included with the Daily Journal is a set of 36 stickers that provides a quick and easy way to summarize each activity in the Shared Experience deck. Stickers allow flexibility in how many and which activities you share with the child each day.

Highlight of the day
She stacked 3 blocks today! She giggled when knocking them down. We played this over and over.

New things I tried today:

Back & forth
The suggestion to sing during diaper changes is working great!
